

tion
the
ate-

the
any
and-

h a
the
hey

... dangerous to pedestrians using them.

With regard to the new gates at the cemetery, on the motion of the Mayor it was decided to forward a photograph of the gates to the donor, Mrs. Alice Honeyfield, of Sydney, and a vote of thanks was passed to Cr. Griffiths for designing the gates free of charge.

The borough engineer (Mr. W. H. Cook) was authorised to accept the ten-

DN 20/05/1924