

Bell tower completed

Construction of Stratford's bell tower is complete but it will be some time before the tower will become operational.

The town clerk, Mr P. A. Tourell, told the Stratford Borough Council finance committee the architects were awaiting the delivery of solenoids to actuate the bell hammers and when these arrived the work could be completed.