

| Stratford Evening Post | 16 December 1926 |

Cook and Lister, saddlers and sports goods specialists, have decided to open a branch in Stratford, and will commence business on Friday in one of the shops in the Broadway Buildings, Broadway. The firm make a specialty of re-stringing tennis racquets, experts being employed for this work.